

Lillian A. Amos

May 6, 1923 - October 7, 2002

Lillie Asalee Amos, daughter of the late Lester and Cora Haynie, was born on May 6, 1923 in Greensboro, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 7, 2002 after a short-term illness. She received her education through the North Carolina School System. During her late teens, she spent her summers with her favorite aunt here in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of twenty, she moved to Baltimore permanently. She met and married Rev. Luther Amos. She held one of the most challenging jobs in the world being a housewife and raising eight children. It was a blessing that she was a good cook. One of her favorite dishes was her famous Banana Pudding. Lillian had a beautiful smile and greeted people wherever she went and no matter whom they were. She had a true love for humanity, which she gained from her religious upbringing. During her last days she expressed so much love and compassion for family and friends, especially her children. She wanted each of them to know how much she loved them. She leaves to mourn: her five daughters, Mary E. Amos, Naomi R. Amos, Esther M. Beauford, Angela T. Burt and Cecelia Amos-Blanks; two sons, Luther P. Amos; one sister, Norma J. Clark; one brother, Harold Haynie; two sisters-in-law, Alice Haynie and Blanche Gillis; nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.
