

Lillian A. Anderson

September 11, 1905 - April 27, 2003

Lillian A. Anderson, eldest daughter of Simion and Eliza Williams, was born on September 11, 1905 in Jamaica, West Indies. She departed this life on April 27, 2003. She received her education in Jamaica where she attended the Titchfield High School. On completion of her education, she became a teacher's assistant and played the piano. Later, she became a store manager. Afterwards, she migrated to the United States of America where she made her home for over fifty years. She had a few friends many of whom predeceased her. She leaves to mourn: sister, Enid and Vie (USA) and Dorris and Edna (Jamaica); nephew and niece, Orville and Shirley (USA) and Claire (Jamaica); and many more.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian A. Anderson

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Lillian A. Anderson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Ms. Anderson, I am sorry about the loss of your family member, I have found comfort from the scripture at Rev. 21:3-5, all death will be a thing of the past.##imported-begin##Laura Carroll##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM