

Lillian A. Jenkins

August 10, 1905 - April 18, 2006

MRS. LILLIAN ADELAIDE MAXWELL BEASLEY JENKINS passed from this life on the evening of Tuesday, April 18, 2006 at Genesis Eldercare in Catonsville, Maryland. She lived a long and fruitful life. Lillian, the daughter of the late Duncan and Adelaide Maxwell, was born on August 10, 1905 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated in the Baltimore and Philadelphia public school systems. As an adult, she worked in the Catonsville area as a caregiver for Augustus and Julia Deansbach. Both Mrs. Jenkins and her late husband, Clinton, were members of Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Baltimore. Lillian accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, and loved Him dearly; taking comfort in Him during hard times and praising Him at all times. Lill loved to sing. She was also an avid gardener. She enjoyed sewing, a hobby she continued to indulge in even after turning one hundred years old. Lillian is survived by her husband, Clinton Earle Jenkins and her three children, Clarence Beasley, Barbara Beasley and Cyril "Pete" Beasley. She leaves to mourn two daughters-in-law, seven generations of grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, and her church family.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So very sorry to read of your loss. I noticed that Mrs. Jenkins was blessed to live a long life by today"s standards, But did you know it was God"s purpose for people to never die at all? Because of the sin of Adam and Eve is why we die at all. Romans 5:12 says, "Just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men for they had all sinned." Thankfully Jehovah chose not to leave us in that state, so he sent his son Jesus to make it possible for us to recieve everlasting life. 1st Cor. 15:22 tells us, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. Please take comfort in the sure hope of the ressurection as you mourn the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
