Not only did she love hearing the work of God but Lillian also enjoyed the choir singing especially when the Quartet song. We would often catch her dancing and praising the Lord in the aisles. There Lillian met the love of her life, the late Clarence Allison Sr. On September 10, 1994 they united as one in Holy Matrimony, during this time Lillian and Clarence Sr. received lots of love from

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.###imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan###imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy, for I too know how it feels to lose someone you love who has touched the lives of so many for the better. May you find comfort in knowing that all is not lost, for God's Word promises us at Job chapter 14 verse 15 that the Almighty God Jehovah yearns to call out to awaken his faithful ones!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our enemy death will be destroyed. May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and the wonderful hope found in the Bible.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ I send my warm and deep sympathy to the family and friends of Lillian. Although when we lose a loved one we truly miss them so much; Jehovah has promised that based on our faith in the ransom paid by his son, Christ Jesus, we will see them again. John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and one day come out of those tombs. Also Jesus himself reminds us at John 11:25, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." I would really like to assist you in learning more concerning God's promises. If you are interested, please contact me at my e-mail address, and we can go over the blessings in the bible. Take care family, and may your precious memories be a comfort to you as well.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
