

Lillian Barksdale

January 15, 1961 - June 7, 2007

Lillian Alisa Barksdale, daughter of Martha Pierce (deceased) and Elmer Lee Barksdale, Sr., was born January 15, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. "Lisa," as she was affectionately known, was the older sister of her beloved brother, Morris A. Barksdale (deceased). She departed this life unexpectedly after a brief illness. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Walbrook Senior High School. She matriculated at Morgan State University focusing her studies on Business Administration. For many years, she was employed by McCormick Industries in Hunt Valley, Maryland in the data processing field. As her family and friends can attest, Lisa was passionate about the things she liked the most. "Coco" mixed bred, loveable dog, kept vigil over her house for many years. She loved her dog dearly and treated him like a member of the family. She also enjoyed keeping up with the latest advances in information technology and entertainment. A regular traveler, she enjoyed hitting the road, especially to her "home away from home," Moncks Corner, South Carolina where she had a close knit group of family and friends. Her sister friend, Teresa Keating, and she enjoyed venturing out to find the best bargains and latest styles at local shopping centers and malls. Lisa received spiritual inspiration from a variety of sources. She was frequently in attendance to receive the Word of God during sermons preached by her "Dad," Reverend Elmer L. Barksdale, Sr., Evangelist Joyce Meyer, also provided spiritual insight through televised programs and books. She leaves to mourn: her father, Reverend Elmer L. Barksdale (Leslie D.); two brothers, Elmer Barksdale, Jr. and Sherard Fallin (Anessa); sister, LaVerne Jones (André); nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mrs. Barksdale, please accept my deepest sympathy. Death is truly a bitter pill to swallow, and so hard to cope with, especially when someone dies so very young as your loved one was. This is certainly not God's purpose for us, and one day soon he promises to end this tragedy of death forever. 1st Corinthians 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then Acts 24:15 tells us of the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jesus resurrected many people when he was here on the earth, and he has been given the power to raise many more back to life in the near future. John 5,26 says, "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself, and he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. Then verse 28 says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." One day dear family, your loved one will live again, and you can have the opportunity of being with her again forever in a new world of peace and happiness. 2nd peter 3:13. I hope these bible verses offer comfort to you, and strengthens you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
