

Lillian Bolden

December 25, 1920 - February 25, 2008

God saw fit to breathe the breath of life into Lillian Wright on December 25, 1920 in Isle of Wright, Virginia, to the late Arnold and Lisa Wright. She attended school there until the death of her parents. She then moved to Baltimore, Maryland to be raised by her sister Isabella Pope. Upon Lillian's arrival in Baltimore she met and married the late Edward Bolden in 1954. Lillian worked various jobs, Pimlico Restaurant as a cook, Bud Restaurant; and she and Edward owned and operated a grocery store until she retired. God nourished Lillian as a steward in Church and had her grow into a beautiful a flower; and on Monday, February 25, 2008, God came to Future Care Nursing Home and picked this flower for his eternal garden. She attended Hemmingway Temple Church until her health began to fail. She loved her family and enjoyed playing Bingo. She leaves to mourn; her son, Charlie Bolden (Katie); daughter-in-law, Carolyn Bolden; thirteen grandchildren, three sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law; a devoted nephew, Joseph Woodson; and goddaughter, Lkia Conway; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family. I did not know Ms. Bolden, but I want to share some comforting words from God's word the Bible at Rev. 21:4, which says: "(Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." What a wonderful promise! This promise has brought comfort to millions. I hope you will find the same comfort.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Bolden's ! May I send my condolences to you all, family and friend. Losing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for all. I have been affected by death too. Imagine the happiness to be when the dead are resurrected in the near future. Living for 88 year is wonderful , and the time is coming when we all will be able to live on a paradise earth forever as the bible say. I am looking forward to that time. No more tears of dying and sorrow and pain and then death. May all the many precious times shared with Ms. Lillian help to support you all on the road of life as our creator promises, Matt7:14.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences for your great loss. When a wonderful human dies, we all die a little, but it's especially hard for the family. One day soon we will not have the enemies sickness and death hanging over our heads, because Jehovah God has promised at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Then he promises that the dead will be brought back to life in the ressurection through his son Jesus. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the ressurection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." May the precious memories of your loved one help you to cope, and may Jehovah"s tender mercies and comfort be with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
