“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Psalm 34:18. May you draw comfort from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. Know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2 Cor. 1:3,4) The Bible also has words of comfort at 1 Corinthians 15:26 which states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
