“ To the family of Ms. Hill, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort not only from your precious memories but also from "the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He assures us at Rev 21:3,4 that He will, "...wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

“ My sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. Hill. Sadly, sickness and death is something we all face in our families. It's such a tragedy that our loved have to leave us. We miss them so much. What has comforted my family is the knoledge that soon Jehovah will remove sickness, sorrow, and death permanately. Isaiah 33:24 says that the time is coming when no resident will say "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 tells us that God will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from off all faces. God promises that soon these blessings will be a reality. We will see our loved ones, and they will never have to leave us ever again. May you have peace and be comforted by these promises.###imported-begin###R Johnaon###imported-end###

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Hi Hill's! May the Hills be having peace in the lost of Lillian. When we lose a dear love one many question come up in the mind, Such as What hope is there for our dear love one?The bible holds all the answer such as Romans 5:12, Job14:4. We can be confidence that our heavenly father will restore life in the resurrection of the dead as Acts 24:15 say in part that there be a resurrection of the dead. Our comfort can come from Jehovah God. I hope these few thoughts were uplifting to you all. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##
