

Lillian Rose Edwards

May 7, 1949 - November 15, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian Rose Edwards

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hey ma, Katia is a senior in high school now I'm so proud she made it ma. She has no babies and she is working. Thank u for all the greatness you instilled in her. I love the younglady she has become and you would too. Love you ma your daughter maisha maisha edwards - September 22, 2014 at 08:04 AM

“ Happy 65th birthday Ma. How I miss calling you to say this.

Maisha Edwards - May 07, 2014 at 07:02 AM

“ Ma, Katia just had her junior prom you know she is talking about college. You would be so proud of her. She goes to Western High School. Thank you for the seed you planted in her at such a early age.

Maisha Edwards - April 28, 2014 at 02:06 PM

“ I miss you so much mom u were my cover n cold times I love you maisha

Maisha Edwards - April 28, 2014 at 01:44 PM

“ I extend my sincere condolences to the family of Lillian. May you find much comfort and strength in the wonderful promise of the resurrection. At Rev 21:3m4 it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." This is Jehovah's promise to us; a promise from the God who cannot lie. Titus 1:2. He always kept his promises to his people in the past, and we can be assured that he will keep his promises for his people in the future. Isaiah 55:11. Death breaks our hearts, and he never desired any one of us to die. So through the precious life of his son Jesus, our dead loved ones will come to life again. John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15, Mark 5:28,29 May you find much peace as you continue on in your journey of life, until that glorious day of salvation arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sympathies are extended to the Edwards family during this most difficult time. Your tears of sorrow are seen by the Creator life. But know that there will be a resurrection and you will see Ms. Lillian again. (John 5:28-29).##imported-begin##JR Terry##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 9:36-41 reports on the death of Dorcas, a loving and generous woman who fell asleep in death. That same account tells of her resurrection back to life. Many scriptures such as this one confirm that Jehovah God will use his only-begotten son Jesus Christ to resurrect many to life. May you receive much strength and comfort from this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

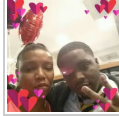

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Edwards' family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 highlights the resurrection hope with these words: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to be comforted by your cherished memories and by God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry for the loss of Dolly as far as her being here for her children, family, and friends. I know that you all take comfort in the fact that she accepted Christ as her personal savior and therefore is in Heaven with those who have gone on before her. None of us are here to stay, Hebrews 9:27 tells us that it is appointed to man once to die and then the judgement. We will all face that grave one day and when we do may we face it like Dolly did, unafraid, only we know truthfully if we can say that with conviction and without any doubt about ourselves. I personally will always remember Dolly as a strong-willed person, I only have memories of her when I was young and the family lived on Rutland Ave., the first thing that comes to my mind when I think of Dolly is HOT PANTS. I say that with the utmost respect. That was the style at the time and she was truly the first woman I ever saw wear them. I remember her standing up to anyone and anybody, her and her Princess were not to be messed with. I had nothing but respect for her. I also remember when her and Horace's car had broken down on Ashland Ave. and she asked me to take a look at it for her. Somehow I was able to fix her problem and get it started for her. She offered to pay me and I refused but she was persistent in her efforts to track me down and pay me for it. She was a good person back then to me and from what I heard from those men who were called by God to preach his word at her funeral she was still a good and kind person up until the time she was called to her heavenly home. It means a lot to me and it should to all of us when pastors speak that highly of a person at their passing. It is obvious that Dolly did a great job raising her children in the way that they should have been, you could not ask for a better testimony than the ones her children gave of her. She truly ran a good race. GOD BLESS HER SOUL. ##imported-begin## David I. Green Sr. ##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

Thank you Mr green

Maisha Edwards - April 28, 2014 at 01:48 PM

“ Shamari, I am so sorry 4 ur lost. U and ur family r in my prayers. If u need anything u know where to find me. Love ur friend till the end, Tasheya”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sorry for your lose.”

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM