“ *My heart goes out to you all in the loss of Mrs. Smith. She was an exceptional woman. So kind and gentle. She was a neighbor everyone needed. She was always watching over the neighborhood children. Gone but never will be forgotten. Rest in Paradise and continue watching over us.

My deepest sympathies and condolences to you and your family in this time of bereavement. May God give you strength and peace that helps you endure and reassures you that your mother is resting peacefully. Hold on to precious memories that make you smile, focus on moments that bring forth laughter and enable you to celebrate her life not focus on her death.. My prayers are continuous for you all!

“ Sorry for your loss. The Smith family and I were neighbors on Arunah Ave for over 20 years. Mrs Smith was part of the village who helped me raise my children. You couldn't find a better neighbor or friend. My condolences goes out to Phyllis, Jeannette, Lynne and their families. God knows best!!! Love, peace and blessings...💖💖💖
