Lillian was my "true friend" for 51 years. We share a bond and friendship that in spite of her death, I will always cherish. I will miss her kindness, her laughter her singing when she answered the phone, but there is comfort for me knowing she is no longer suffering. Rest in Peace my Friend

*Love ya

Lillian, our classmate and our friend will sorely be missed. She was a beautiful person who loved to laugh and had an infectious smile like no other. Those of us who knew her are better people for having her in our lives.

*Sister, you will be missed
