

Lillian Taylor

November 29, 1925 - July 1, 2021

Legacy of Life

The harvest does not speak of an untimely cutting down of the grain; rather it speaks of it being in its season. Therefore, the life lived by our departed love one should not be viewed as untimely, but in it's season, the season of God's choosing. Embrace the appreciation for the one that gave life, gave provision, good or bad; realizing it all is granted possible through the blessings of Jesus Christ.

Lillian V. Taylor "Skeezie" was called home to her eternal rest on July 1, 2021.

Lillian was born on November 29, 1925 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Ruth Racks. She attended Van de Vyver Catholic School in Richmond, Virginia. She was a devoted member of the St. Joseph Catholic Church and St. Paul Catholic Church.

Lillian had many devoted friends and church family members. Two special neighbors, Mrs. Ella Lipcomb and Mr. Joe Brown. They looked out for each other. She was strong willed, self assured and always a lady. She was a self taught pianist and loved playing the electronic keyboard and singing hymns.

She enjoyed playing “Pokeno” and “Bingo” with family and friends. After working many years, Lillian retired from Massey, Wood and West Inc.

Lillian was predeceased by her husband Otis Taylor, sister Julia Kenney and daughter Vivian Carter.

She is survived by one daughter, Ruth Ann Bugg (Raymond); four grandchildren, Bonita Douglas, Michael Bugg, Deborah Liverpool, Cynthia Liverpool; five great-grandchildren, Jasmine Douglas, Shannon Liverpool, Shawn Liverpool, Preston Liverpool, and RJ Liverpool; a great, great-grandson Armani Douglas; a devoted cousin Mary Miller; three nieces, Pearl Hopewell, Lillie Moore, and Vera Smith; a host of relatives and friends.

“God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered “Come to me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you fall away.

Although we couldn’t bear to lose you, we could not ask you to stay.

A golden heart stopped beating. Hardworking hands laid to rest.

God broke my heart to prove to us, that He only takes the best.”
