“ To the family... I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one; please accept my sincerest condolences. Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind; He actually hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all.

(1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5)

Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 27:9-11, Revelation 21:3, 4, and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. My hope is that knowing this will help to take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear Lillian. May you draw much comfort from the wonderful promises found in Gods' Word The Bible. Our Creators' Son Jesus, himself tells us at John 5:28-29 in part, "... Do not marvel at this, soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". He was speaking of the resurrection here on earth. This is no mere fantasy. It will occur just like the nine documented, and recorded accounts we can examine for ourselves. Our Heavenly Father promises this resurrection will be to a cleansed paradise earth (Psalms 37:9-11). Gone will be sickness, pain and death (Isaiah 33:24, Revelation 21:3-4, 1 Corinthians 15:26). Very, very soon we will be able to welcome back our lost loved ones. May you and your family be strengthened, and hurt much less knowing This will indeed happen, just as He has said. Sincerely Mrs. D. Ward More Bible-based comfort can be found on the website www.jw.org

to leon, i know beyond a shadow of a doubt that liz was saved in the body of christ. therefore we know that she has gone on to be with the lord, the bible says to be absent from the body is to be present with the lord. soooo i say to you when you know where something is it is not lost. soooo please don't tell anyone that you've lost liz. you know where she is, resting in JESUS.
