

Lillian Wright

October 9, 1925 - June 8, 2004

Lillian Wright, beloved daughter of the late Preston and Hester Flynn Dupree, was born on October 9, 1925 in Florence, South Carolina. On Tuesday, June 8, 2004, after a lengthy illness, God touched her hand and said, "Child come on home to rest." At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. She received her education from elementary to high school, in the Baltimore City Public School System. Lillian was married to the late Alexander Wright; there were no children from this union. She raised her nephew, Kenneth McCoy Jr. and great-niece, Tashera McCoy. She was employed as a cashier, later retiring from work. Lillian loved her family, but most of all she loved God. We can remember, going to her home and enjoying all those good meals. She loved to cook and always had something good cooking. Lillian's legacy of love for us will remain in our hearts. Three sisters and three brothers preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: three sisters, Mrs. Resume Williams, Mrs. Marie McCoy and Mrs. Elouise Rose; one brother, Mr. James C. Dupree; a devoted niece, Mrs. Melvine Turlington; many nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the Wright's family: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know that she will be missed by all who loved her. May you find comfort in the scriptures found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. There Almighty God, promise to wipe away sickness, pain, sorrow, and death. Yes, she will not be forgotten, God has also promised a "resurrection" {Acts 24: 15}. I hope these scriptures prove to be a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
