

Lillie B. Gladney

July 2, 1936 - September 2, 2008

Lillie Gladney, daughter of the late Mattie Jones Gladney and Richard Gladney, was born on July 2, 1936 in Chester, South Carolina. She departed this life on September 2, 2008 after a brief illness. Lillie received her education in Chester, South Carolina. She was one of the first African American females to work as a Correction Officer in the Corrections Division. After working in the correction system for many years, because of her love and desire for caring for people, Lillie went into the health field. Lillie worked at various hospitals such as, Church Homes, Northwest and Good Samaritan. She received many certificates from the State of Maryland for her faithful service to the people of Maryland. Lillie was very devoted mother. She always had her children's best interest at heart. She insured that they had a good education and was always respectful to anyone they came in contact with. She was preceded in death by her son Michael Crosby. Lillie was very devoted to her church, New Mount Joy Missionary Baptist Church. Lillie made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn; her husband, James Carroll; her son, Mitchel Crosby and his wife Doris; four grandchildren, Mitchel Crosby, Jr., Shanlly Crosby, Marcell Crosby and Shannetta Crosby; her brother, Ernest Gladney; her sister, Martha Harrison; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillie B. Gladney

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Karen Harris lit a candle in memory of Lillie B. Gladney

---

Karen Harris - December 20, 2010 at 09:50 PM

“ Cousin, I still can't believe you are gone. Even though your homegoing service was in your church, it hurt that you were in an urn. I hope and pray they were your ashes. I wish you could have been viewed. I've never known our family to have cremations. But that's okay. Your soul is with the one you loved, Jesus!!! I miss you so much. You have never left my memory. I thank God for allowing us to be cousins.
Love you always,
Karen

---

Karen Harris - December 20, 2010 at 09:49 PM

“ I offer my deepest, heartfelt condolences for your loss. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. Acts 24:15 lets us know that there will be a resurrection of the righteous. When Jesus was here on earth, he changed the lives of many who had lost loved ones, by bringing their loved ones back from the dead. This is why John 5:28,29 tells us this: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his(Jesus"s) voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." What a comforting promises, to know that our loved ones will hear the voice of Jesus and come to life again. May you be comforted and strengthened by the hope of he resurrection.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear cousin, I am missing you so much now. I am truly going to miss you. You meant so much to me. It's good and a blessing you are with your Saviour. No more suffering, no more chemotherapy, and no more pains. You are having a good time. Say hello to Grandma for me. Lillie, I will always love you. Thank you for all the motherly and sisterly talks we had. Rest in peace dear cousin. May you get your just reward. Love Always, Karen##imported-begin##Karen Y. Harris##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM