

Lillie M. Brown

May 18, 1923 - August 5, 2016

LILLIE M. BROWN was born on May 18, 1923 in Reidsville, North Carolina. She was the youngest of the four Lewis children born to the late Edward and Lillie Lewis. She departed this life peacefully on August 5, 2016 at Sinai Hospital.

She received her early education in Palmyra, Virginia. When her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, she continued her education in the public schools of Baltimore City. Eventually she attended what was then the East Baltimore Beauty School, majoring in cosmetology. She worked as a beautician and salon owner for many years until her retirement in 2005.

Lillie accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church under the direction of the late Hiram E. Smith. Throughout the years, she has served faithfully on the Senior Choir until her health failed.

She met and married Frisco Brown and from this union she was blessed with one daughter, Barbara, who was the pride and joy of her life.

Lillie, affectionately known as "Li-Li" was full of life and lived it to its fullest.

She was "fly" from a teenager all the way up to her senior years. She loved her family and friends to no end and lit up a room with her infectious smile.

She joins a host of family and friends within the circle of eternal life including her granddaughter, Tracy Green- Caster, three siblings, Sarah Brown (Earl, Sr.), Lawrence Lewis (Dorothy) and James Lewis (Marie)

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughter, Barbara Green (Lawrence); one granddaughter, Tara Gillis (Eric); one great-grandchild,

Shyanne Ingram; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
