

Lillie Elizabeth Edwards Davis

August 30, 1920 - December 19, 2012

Lillie Edwards Davis was born on August 30, 1920 to Robert and Alease Edwards. She is preceded in death by her husband, Nathaniel Davis; sisters; Florence, Dorothy and Alease; brothers; David and Curtis; granddaughter Denise.

Lillie grew up in the Church Hill area of the City of Richmond, VA. She was affectionately called, "Lil", "Ma Lil", and "Aunt Lil". She attended Richmond Public Schools. She was a member of the 79th Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. She retired from Philip Morris in 1983. After retirement, Lillie volunteered her time as a member of 31st Street Baptist Church. She was an active member until her health failed.

Lillie was the "Matriarch" of the family. She would often jokingly state that her family tree was full of nuts. Lillie loved telling stories about the good ole days and jokes. She always had you laughing about something that happened back in the days. She loved spending time with all of her grands, great-grands, and great-great-grands, and great-great-great-grands. She loved family time and preparing meals. Her specialties included her famous fried cabbage, macaroni and cheese with tomatoes and homemade pound cake. Lillie's favorite anytime snacks were Doritos and Peanut Logs.

On December 19, 2012, Lillie peacefully slipped into eternal rest. In tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away; Our hearts were almost broken, and wanted you to stay. But when we saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain; How could we wish you back with us to suffer once again? It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; For a part of us went with you, that day God took you home.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, two loving and devoted daughters, Shirley A. Threat (Leroy) and Barbara V. Edwards; four grandchildren, Dianne, Iris, Pamela, Woody (Unithia); seven great-grandchildren, Michael, Tara, Exzabia, Toshia, Tomeka, Sharod and Trae; twelve great-great grandchildren, Antoine, Michael, DeShawn, Miqvan, Izaiah, Myana, Elijah, Demaya, Demonie, Mat Exzabia, Jr and Maya; three great-great-great grandchildren, Mikhi, Jada Rae, and Jordan; three devoted friends, Abraham Bathea, Margaret Wimberly and Barbara Bennett.

“ Mom Lil,

Thank you for the gift of love,now you're sharing it up above.You had many things to say all in a caring way.You always saw good in everyone,no matter what they've done,you were always the one we could all lean on.Even though it must have felt like a ton.

You were always the strength of the Family,now we must let you rest calmly as we say goodbye,as the tears roll down our eyes,I know you will always be in our hearts and mind,So Mom Lil, I must go but I'll never forget you're one of a kind.R.I.P

Your Loving GrandDaughter, Dianne

“ My condolences to the Davis Family. May you all experience Gods loving support during this difficult time. Psalms 147:3. Please know that God has made a wonderful provision for our dear loved ones sleeping in death. We are assured of this promise at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:4. Our dear loved ones will be resurrected back to life on a paradise earth where death will be no more. Isaiah 25:8 please find the most wonderful promise from Gods word comforting during this time.

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my sincere condolences to the family.
