“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Daniel 12:2 gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones return to life. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May you receive much comfort and strength from this divinely inspired promise until it takes place.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I want to offer my condolences to your family for your loss. Although I didn't know your loved one, I can relate to the pain of losing someone you truly love. Soon, this enemy, death will be no more and we won't need funeral homes anymore. Our Heavenly Father knows what we're going through and will act in the very near future. According to Isaiah 25:8 we're given the promise that Jehovah God will "swallow up death forever." Isaiah 26:19 promises, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust." I pray that these scriptures give you hope now and until these promises are fulfilled.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Ms. Faines' family, I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. At times like this just knowing that someone cares about how you feel can be comforting. But what can be more comforting than the scriptures. John 5:28,29 states that by means of a resurrection, we have the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That scripture has comforted me in my times of grief and it is my hope that it will comfort you also.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
