

Lillie Valerie Holmes

June 4, 1956 - July 3, 2024

MS. LILLIE VALERIE HOLMES, the beloved daughter of the late Mr. Herbert Junius Holmes, Sr. and the late Mrs. Edith Valerie Holmes departed her life on Earth July 3, 2024.

During Lillie's youth and adulthood, she possessed a vivacious and high-spirited personality, indoors and outdoors with family, relatives, and friends and never forgetting strangers. She accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior before being baptized at the Ray of Hope Baptist Church.

Lillie was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Eastern High School in June 1972. She quickly gained employment at General Motors with excitement until an unexpected serious spine injury halted her service at the company. Fast forward, Lillie acquired the gift of excellence in serving others in the hospitality field staying with longevity and completing 30+ years and five years toward retirement

. Earlier in life, Lillie was joined in marriage to Mr. Marvin Leroy Stokes.

Lillie leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Mrs. Lynda Miles and Ms. Edith Green; two brothers, Mr. Herbert Holmes Jr. and Mr. Maurice Holmes; brother-in-law, Mr. John Miles; aunt, Ms. Christine Horton who is celebrating her 87th birthday today; uncle, Mr. Dios Roulhac; very special friends, Mr.

Leroy Stokes, Mr. James, Ms. Roberta, Ms. Veal, Ms. Doreen and others; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.
