LILLIE FRANCES JOHNSON, daughter of the late William T. Clark and Lillie Mann Clark, was born on December 7, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home to be with the Lord on January 20, 2013.

Lillie, affectionately known to her friends and family as Frances, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1936. She met the love of her life, the late Lewis J. Johnson Jr. and they were united in holy matrimony on March 29, 1937. From this union, three children were born: Thelma, Frances Theresa and Lewis.

Fr

ances developed her religious strengths at Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church where she served faithfully until her health declined. She was a member of the Chancellor Choir, Fuel Club which loved to travel, and the United Methodist Women; and she also served anywhere else she was asked. She was widely respected by her family and through-out her neighborhood for the love and care she showed to all.

Fr

ances was a seamstress by trade making beautiful wedding gowns, prom dresses and performed general alterations and tailoring. "Lil Granny" was also well known for her cakes and cookies; and always made birthday cakes for her family and friends.

She

leaves to cherish her memory: three children, Thelma L. Gray (Charles), Frances T. Massey and Lewis J. Johnson III; two sisters-in-law, Ann Killikelly (Lance) and Virginia Clark; one brother-in-law, Randolph Johnson (Lucille); ten grandchildren, Thomas Gray (Brenda), Ken Johnson, Michael Gray, Gary Gray (Leatrice), Lewis Johnson, Wilbur Massey (Michele), Kenneth Johnson, Karen Randolph, Larry Johnson and Christopher Gray (Keisha); twenty-six great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
