

Lillie Kate Mae Kearney

March 9, 1927 - October 13, 2019

On October 13, 2019, following a period of declining illness, Lillie Kate Mae Kearney, found "sweet rest at last." Oh what a grand reunion we envision as she greets her parents, husband, her brother Jessie Lee Taylor Sr., and three of her children whom preceded her.

Born on March 9, 1927 in Emporia, Virginia, Lillie Mae was one of two children. She attended school in Greensville County School, graduating in 1944. Shortly thereafter, she began working as a Nursing Technician at the House of Pines. There, she cared for many, and her loving and compassionate nature, undoubtedly, brought joy to many of the residents.

In 1946, likeable and personable Lillie married her sweetheart George. From that union, they had seven children: Ethel Mae, Maxine, George, Ricky, Larry, Billy, and Teresa. What a spirited time the Kearney household must have been as Lillie Mae danced throughout, singing her favorite tunes and spreading her love.

A spirit filled woman, Lillie Mae was a faithful member of New Elizabeth Baptist Church. She loved her church family, just as much as she loved her choir members and singing praises with them. Outside of church, she enjoyed the Forest Park Senior Center where she enjoyed line dancing and belonged to the Golden Rockettes, a cherished her family and found pleasure in cooking, gardening, shopping, completing jig saw puzzles, and spending cool evenings on the front porch, sitting on her swing and waving to all whom passed by her. She touched the lives of many, with her wisdom and generosity.

That Lillie Mae spent 92 years with us here on earth reflects the love and generosity of an Almighty God. Even near the end, she continued to smile, her way of letting us know that it was "well with her soul."

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Ethel Mae Campbell, Maxine Turner, and Teresa Kearney; one son Billy Kearney; two daughters in law, Linda Wise Kearney; and a host of grandchildren, great grand children, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
