

Lillie Mae Anderson

May 13, 1933 - October 7, 2003

Lillie Evans Anderson was born in Richmond, Virginia on May 13, 1933 to the late Vivian and Littleton Edmonds, Sr. She was called to her eternal rest on October 7, 2003 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Lillie received her formal education in the Richmond public school system and graduated from Maggie Walker High School. She received Christ at an early age when she joined the Morning Star Baptist Church where she was so affectionately known as "Lily of the Valley and Bright and Morning Star." Lillie relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1958 where she pursued a career as a psychiatric aide at the Rosewood State Hospital. She retired in November of 2002 after close to 40 years of service. Lillie was a member of Brown's Memorial Baptist Church where she loved serving the Lord. Her favorite song was "Jesus Be A Fence All Around Me." "Her biggest joy was raising her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren," according to her son, Nathaniel Evans, Jr. Lillie enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She loved to cook and her family and friends would attest to the fact that meals were prepared with lots of love and care. Her favorite pastime was taking bus trips with her best friend Mary Bennett. She leaves to cherish, not mourn, her memory; a son, Nathaniel Evans, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; three daughters, Shirley Lipscomb (Donald), Sophia Jones (Marvin), of Baltimore, Maryland, and Trevor Carter (Dennis, Jr.) of Woodbridge, Virginia; three sisters, Gloria Christian, Odessa and Christine Edmonds; two brothers, Claude Edmonds (Wilma), and Littleton Edmonds, Jr. all of Richmond, Virginia; eight grandchildren, Damon Gerald, LaTanya Glasgow, Chantel and Nicole Carter, Marvin, Jr. and Jamal Jones, Dennis Carter III and Ashley Jones; three great grandchildren, Tiyana, Brooklyn and Morgan. She was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Alicia Evans. She also leaves a host of other relatives and friends. Two years after her marriage to Nathaniel Evans, Sr. ended, she married Percell Anderson, who died in 1989.

“ To the family of Lillie Anderson The loss of a loved one is one trial that can remain in our mind and hearts for a life time. But note the comfort the God of all comfort gives in His word the Bible, at Acts 24:15 as well as 1 Corinthians 15:12-17. May you find hope, comfort and a measure of peace from these scriptures and may they warm your heart.##imported-begin##Amanda Miles##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
