

Lillie Mae Coleman

April 21, 1921 - March 3, 2005

LILLIE MAE COLEMAN, daughter of the late John H. and Alean B. Phillips, was born on April 21, 1921, in Warren County, North Carolina. She was the eldest daughter of nine children, four of whom preceded her in death -- John Jr., Patrick, Freddie L., and Catherine. She departed this life on March 3, 2005. She was educated in the Warren County public school system. She accepted Christ at an early age, and joined Norlina Baptist Church. At the time of her death, she was a member of The Church of the Redeemed of the Lord in Baltimore. She married the late Clarence A. Coleman in 1940, and moved to Baltimore, MD, where they made their home. From this union, one daughter was born, Dianna Lenn. Lillie retired from Keswick Nursing and Rehabilitation Center as a nursing assistant in 1987. After retirement, she became a senior companion to the elderly. She was active in the missionary society, and enjoyed participating in other church and community activities. Lillie loved her family, and was the family matriarch. Everyone gathered at "Big Sis" house. She was always willing to lend a helping hand, and opened her doors to those who needed a place to stay. She will be truly missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Dianna Tucker; her son-in-law, Rev. Dr. James E. Tucker, Sr.; her grandchildren, Kimberly Tucker and Lieut. Jason Tucker; granddaughter-in-law, Amanda Tucker; two brothers, Elbert and Calvin Phillips; two sisters, Marie Downtin and Dorothy Osborne; five sisters-in-law; six brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Aunt Mae, I love you so much and I will miss you dearly. I truly appreciate every moment that we had with one another. For you were more than a (great) aunt to me. You gave me nourishment through your wisdom. You always told me to strive for excellence despite what people have to say and despite any hardships that may come my way. I just thank God for the time that you had to share with us. I will miss your precious smiles and your funny jokes - you were so much fun. Love you always, Angie & Breniya

“ I am very sorry for your great loss. I send my condolences to the family. But the Bible says that you will be able to see your loved one again on this earth! (John 5:28,29). Also, there will soon be a time when there will be no more death, sickness, or pain. (Rev. 21:3,4). May you be comforted by these scriptures and God, Jehovah.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Lillie Coleman, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. The scripture at Isaiah 26:19 says “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]. May you find comfort in this scripture knowing that you have the hope of seeing your dead loved one again.##imported-begin##Sopha Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
