“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my deepest condolences to the family at this time. Please be comforted, and keep in mind that God promises a resurrection for the dead. Acts 24:15 lovingly promises that there will be a resurrection for both the righteous and the unrighteous." When our loved ones come back to life our hearts will overflow with joy, and will swell with love towards God who makes all things possible. Psalm 68:20 gives a comforting message, because it says, "Our God is a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belong the ways out from death." One day he will destroy death forever, and we will be able to live eternally in peace and happiness. May those thoughts bring joy to your hearts, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
