

Lillie Mae Harvey

June 25, 1922 - October 7, 2001

Lillie Mae Harvey, daughter of the late Jimmmy Suggs and Dora Purdie, was born on June 25, 1922 in Halifax, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 7, 2001. She received her education in the Halifax County Public Schools. On October 1, 1938, she was united in marriage to the late Lenon Harvey, Sr. Out of this union, four children were born, Dorothy, the late Lenon, Jr., Carolyn, and Virginia. In 1942, Lillie Mae, along with her husband and kids, moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she resided until death. "MaMa" as she was affectionately known to her family and friends, was a devoted daughter, mother, wife and grandmother. She was loved by all and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Her Missionary work. "MaMa" was a faithful Christian woman who leaned heavily on the Lord. Her favorite Bible verses could be found in Psalm 23. She faithfully served on the Missionary Board at the Rising Son Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Daniel E. Moore and will greatly be remembered as the "Mother of the Church." She was also a devoted and active member of the Senior Citizen Outreach Ministry at the New Antioch Baptist Church in Randallstown, Maryland. The life she led and the work she did while on this earth truly spoke for her. She leaves to mourn three daughters, Dorothy Chambers, Carolyn Moore, and Virginia Moore; two sons-in-law, Rev. Daniel E. Moore and Rev. William M. Moore; six grandchildren, David Jr., Tony, Denise, Crystal, Danielle, and Billy; fifteen great-grandchildren; one aunt, Bessie Alston of Newark, New Jersey, and a host of other relatives and friends.
