

Lillie Mae Scott

September 8, 1929 - October 5, 2001

Lillie Mae Scott, daughter of the late Willie Lewis and Bettie White was born on September 18, 1929 in Pittsburgh, Virginia. She departed this life on October 5, 2001. She received her education in Virginia. She was the head matriarch of the family and stood firm in her decisions. She was a strong loving independent woman. She will be deeply missed by all that love her and knew her. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Ruth Johnson of Baltimore, Diane Mazek of New York and Audrey Davis of Baltimore; one son, Maurice Scott of Baltimore; one son-in-law, Otis Johnson; one daughter-in-law, Bridgett Scott, seventeen grandchildren and twenty-eight great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild and a host of dearest close friends, Harry Williams, Joanne York, Helen Gasque, Eleanor Smith and lot's and lot's more, She was truly loved, but we all know she's gone home to our Father (God Almighty) and in a much better place, Amen!

“ Wow October the 5th it seems like it got a lot of comparison to 1028 I sure wish in times could turn back not the hands on the clock but the hours and the minutes in a second I wish your son could have showed me the way and I promise you I would have walked with him like Jesus deep down in my heart I know we're connected for a reason. I don't know if this is an ancient life but or Greek but words cannot explain. You cannot question God or ask him where but I know if you would have never left 3 years after I think it really hurt him maybe it turned his soul Cold war his heart black the hatred and stuff that it was filled with it was a part of my secrets in our past which we're at the future now just please the continue to watch over your son he is amazing person I just wish you would open up and communicate more and like give me a understanding Garnet Angels is sent to you for a reason. I think our reason is here right now is the season your son say that the. The weather is going to keep switching up but the weather the weather is is switching up due to me and him mainly me and we can take it back to the future the future when I brought the past back to us it's that time 1993 South Suffolk. Rest easy and continue to cover your son and your blood and your name watch over here for the rest of the days of his life and I apologize for whatever I went wrong please forgive me and please watch over your son
