

Lillie Mae Williams

March 11, 1935 - June 22, 2006

LILLIE MAE WILLIAMS, daughter of the late Edgar and Pollie Sutton, was born on March 11, 1935 in Warsaw, North Carolina. She departed her life on June 22, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the public schools of North Carolina. She met and married Charlie Williams, and they later moved to Baltimore Maryland. Out of that union, they were blessed with five children. Lillie Mae worked various jobs throughout the city. She settled into an occupation as a sewing machine operator in 1968, where she stayed for thirty-one years and retired in 1999. Lillie Mae became a member and served on the hospitality committee at First Apostolic Faith Church. Along with all of that, she became a member of the Eastern Star of the Masonic Temple. Lillie always used her spare time productively, because if she wasn't at work, she would be helping someone or engaging in church affairs. Her passion in life was cooking, sewing and doing hair. Mrs. Lillie was kind, caring, loving, dependable, honest and most of all she had a good heart and soul. Lillie Mae Williams leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her husband of fifty-three years, Charlie James Williams; two brothers, Oscar and Randolph Sutton; her sister, Ann Jenkins; her sisters-in-law, Carolyn Sutton of Warsaw, N.C., Christine Faison of Turkey, N.C., Laverne and Vanessa of Baltimore, Md.; uncle, Handy Henry of Warsaw, N.C., five aunts, Willie Sutton of Warsaw, N.C., Lillie Johnson of Brooklyn, N.Y., Rosie Frederick and Queen Moore of Warsaw, N.C., and Hazel Moore of Wilson, N.C.; and a host of close nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillie Mae Williams

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ We the Craig Family would like to express our heart felt sympathy to the Williams family in your great lost. You are not alone, remember God won't put no more on you than you can bear. God knew she was tired and saw fit to call her home to get her rewards.##imported-begin##Grant & Gwendolyn Craig##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 tells us- "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort as you ponder over that loving hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mrs. Williams, I offer my most sincere sympathy. The bible can be a great source of comfort at such times of grief. Rev 21:3,4 tells us that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." "The former things have passed away." God's promises can be a sustaining force in our lives, and can give us the strenght to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM