“ Hello ! Jones! I am so sorry for your circle of life being broken. We all have felt the pain of losing a dear loved one in death. Our heavenly father cares so much for you all and is there with comfort as the bible say at 2 Cor.1:3, in all our tribulations in these last days.The time is coming when no one will ever die at all, Isa.25:8. I hope these few words will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us that "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly tells us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I send you many prayers and sympathy during this time of sadness. I too know how it feels to lose a loved one. It is truly the most difficult thing we ever have to go through, but know that our loving heavenly father is always there for us at such times to comfort us, and to help us endure all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. In the bible at Isaiah 25:8 God promises that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. As for our loved ones who have passed, they are not forgotten by God. John 5:28,29 makes this wonderful promise to us. It says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I sincerely hope that you are strengthened by this hope of the resurrection, and that your precious memories of Lillie will be a source of comfort to you in the days to come.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
