

Lillie Mae Tucker

December 13, 1932 - July 10, 2012

Lillie M. Tucker, daughter of the late Lewis H. and Mickey L. Crews was born on December 13, 1932 in Halifax, Virginia. She departed this life on July 10, 2012 after lengthy illness.

She received her education in Halifax, Virginia where she met and married Charles B. Tucker

They moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the mid 1950's and raised seven children. She began her nursing career at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she was employed until she retired in 1992.

Lillie had a kind and gentle spirit, she made numerous friends wherever she went. . She was always a true friend and devoted wife and mother. She always thought of others first and neglected her own needs and desires so that others would not go lacking. Regardless of how she felt even after she became ill, she would just say "I m alright.

She was preceded in death by three sons, Alvin J. Tucker, Ronald E. Tucker and Sherman W. Tucker and one daughter, Sandra D. White.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Charles B. Tucker; daughter, Shirley M. Tucker; sons, Charles N. Tucker Andre F. Tucker; one daughter-in-law, Terron R. Tucker ; two granddaughters, Twanda D. Jordan and Monique Brown; one grandson, Andre I. Tucker, four great granddaughter, Brittney L. Jordan, Vantria A. Conway, Jordan R. Phillips and Shyster Tucker; one great great grandchild, Aubrice A. Flood; two sisters, Rosa Young and Shirley Hill; two brothers-in-law, Charles Young and Charlie Hill; two sisters-in-law, Rebecca Wiggins and Ludie Gaines; and a host of nieces and nephews, extended family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to the entire Tucker family. I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Tucker when moved on Andover Road at the age of 8. Being the best friend of her granddaughter Nippy, I was always treated like I was a family member. I'll always remember Mrs. Tuckers sweet spirit, kind words and laugh but most of all the smell of breakfast being prepared for Mr. Tucker in the mornings. God's speed Mrs. Tucker, you'll surely be missed. Love, Pam

“ Aunt Lillie was such a kind and sweet woman. I will always remember her laugh, soft voice and smile. No more suffering and no more pain. Now she can join her parents and children that she lost before her. Rest In Peace Aunt Lillie
Love Always Melanie :)

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
