“ I wish to extend my deep condolences to the Taylor family at this time. It is truly devastating for a family to lose a dear loved one, and death is something that we never get used to. This pain and sorrow was never Jehovah's purpose for us. Adam and Eve brought this legacy upon the whole human race. Our loving heavenly father took immediate steps to undo the harm they brought upon us by sending his most beloved son Jesus to pay the ransom price for us with his perfect life given in our behalf. 1st Cor 15:22 reminds us: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Lovingly, John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." One day soon Lillie, as well as millions of others who have died, will hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May you find much comfort and strength in the sure hope of the resurrection. Acts 24:15##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
