

Lillie Mae Wade

April 30, 1939 - October 25, 2019

Legacy of Life

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows of the Spirit reap everlasting Life. Galatians 6: 7-8

Lillie Mae Wade was called to glory on October 25, 2019 to have eternal rest. She was born April 30, 1939 to the late Sallie Dickerson and Otis Pulliam in Roxbury, North Carolina. She is preceded by her son, Michael Wade and a daughter, Margarthe Wade; siblings, Alice Morrissey, Melvin Norwood, June Norwood, Margaret Wright and Christopher Lee, also her dear friend/daughter-in-law, Peggy Wade.

She never forgot where her blessings came from, gracing her to accomplish 30+ years working for the Richmond Public School System as a Parent Educator. During this reign, Lillie had the ability to help thousands of children along the way through her caring loving spirit.

“Believe,” is what she stood for, “with God all things are possible”.

Lillie was formally married to Joe Louis Wade for more than 25 years. And from that union, seven children were born. She became a member of the Fresh Anointing Cathedral COGIC, under the leadership of Dr. Larry Miles in Richmond, Virginia.

She was loved by many and always had an open home to help those in need. She meant so much to so many people as she traveled the world by living in Australia and visited Canada, Europe, New Zealand and many other places. Lillie was indeed, very beautiful-inside and out. She was hard-working, inspiring, dependable and will always live in our hearts. To all of her grands, her love will always prevail and her goal was to make sure she could teach all to be leaders and not followers. Also, if you love someone, tell and try to show them everyday because you never know when it will be the last day. In Jesus Name!

In her loving memory are the loves of her life: caring children, Anthony, Thomas, Joe Louis Jr., Kenneth and Lisa Wade; 11 grand-children; 22 great-grandchildren; siblings, Otis Norwood (Barbara), Melvin Norwood (Barbara), Deacon Luther Norwood, (Maria), Daphine (Dean) Bradsher, Clyde Boykins Jr. (Mary), Adel Williams; brother-in-law, Joseph Morrissey, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and caring friends, especially Sarah Coles, Vivian Walker, Gwen Dorman, Shirley Brown and Patsy Walker.

“ To the Wade family, my condolences for the loss of your mother. Growing up with you all brings back fond memories of Ma Wade, I remember how she would have us laughing at her jokes and how she would think the best in a bad situation. Her smile made me feel safe and that I was apart of the family. When I would be over for meals with Lisa she never made me feel like a guest she would always make sure I knew that I was to make myself at home. I want the family to know how much I appreciate her Love and kindness, please know that she's more alive now than she ever was. Blessings to the family. Much Love, Gail Battle
