LILLIE POOLE-WHITE, daughter of Mary Robinson and the late Sylvester Poole was born on December 28, 1956. She departed this life on February 23, 2016 after a short illness. Lillie received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland where she received her High School Diploma, Lillie also attended Coppin State College.

Lillie was very wise and smart, she loved children and often times had a following. Lillie loved a good party and you would find her cleaning up afterwards. When you met Lillie you knew you had a loyal friend. She took great pride in her family especially her grandchildren. She loved all types of sports (basketball, pool, ping-pong, skating, swimming), just to name a few, and of course she loved her old skool music. Lillie was a true leader because her friends would believe she made good sound decisions. Lillie can be remembered for cooking Sunday dinners and always, always telling a good joke to make you laugh. Lillie won awards in school for being the most popular, the most playful and a host of other awards.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted husband, Terence of thirteen years; her daughter, Kinyottia Hawkins; three brothers, George, Willie (her twin) of Baltimore and Andre of Harrisburg; three sisters, Rosa, Carrie and India of Baltimore; three grandchildren, Larry, Keon, and her heart, Korri girl; her god daughter, Talaya Jones; three nieces Christina, Lawang of D'Nya of Baltimore and Gigi of Harrisburg; three nephews, William, Juwang of Baltimore and Andre of Harrisburg; and a host of other relatives and friends.
