Her greatest ministry was her family, walking with husband in Christ and raising their children in the Word of God (Prov. 22:6) she followed Christ in every this he did and her life left a large trail of proof. A prestigious woman of God as a Sunday teacher, Choir Member, Usher, Liturgical Dancer, Lay Speaker, and so much more. A lifetime working in education for over 25 years. Education Instructor, Elementary School Sister High School Teacher, School Librarian, YMCA, before and after school care. She was blessed to do what she loved for a lifetime , family and teaching children, in school, or in church. Her free time ,was family time, which she spent with her grandchildren every second she had. She left an impression on the lives of everyone who knows her and will be carried on for generations. She loved gospel music, Word games with family members. Did everything she could to make the dreams of her family come true. There's honestly not enough time or paper to tell everything but I can tell you that if you truly knew her than you know that I have hardly said anything at all, trying to shine a flashlight on the sun.1
