

Linda P. Carroll Hughes

June 18, 1953 - December 16, 2022

Linda Patricia Carroll Hughes, daughter of the late Irene O'Neal and Warren Carroll, departed this life after an unexpected illness. She was the oldest sister out of her ten siblings. She is preceded in death by her oldest brother, Robert Coleman.

Linda, unlike any other, was beautiful on the inside and out. She received her formal education from the Baltimore Public Schools System. Both she and her cousin Martha Edwards El, who also preceded her in death, were the first two females in the family to graduate from high school. After graduating, Linda attended Nursing school and became a Licensed Practical Nurse.

Linda was the proud mother of her two daughters, Teresa and Myrea and her son, Greer. She was very passionate about her family and she took the role of big sister to heart. She loved her children and her grandchildren. She loved to use a handful of "colorful" words and she would tell you like it was! People could spot her way down the street from her signature walk and her infamous pocketbook!

On July 20, 2013, she married Cedric Hughes with their entire families as witnesses. She found Christ and was a faithful member of the Agape House Ministries until her illness began in 2011.

Linda was a born fighter and she fought valiantly through her illness until the end. She will forever be missed and loved by everyone that knew her. She is now reunited in heaven with her daughter, Teresa Michele Carroll and her brothers, Roosevelt O'Neal and Kenneth Arthur O'Neal, all of whom were lost this year.

She leaves to cherish her memories; her husband, Cedric; her son, Greer; her daughter, Myrea, her daughter-in-law, Tamia; her stepdaughter, Charlene; her stepson, Antione; her grandchildren, Thomas, Aureya, Daijia, Taylor, Serenity, Colin, Bria, Nolan, Greer III, and Christian; her brother, Warren; her sisters, Charlene, Francine, Cynthia, Vivian, Donna and Kimberly; her sisters-in-law, Adrienne, Denise, Jacqueline and Patricia; her brother-in-law, Alvin and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
