

Linda Dobson Charity

April 7, 1949 - April 6, 2021

Linda Carnetta Dobson Charity, 71, of Henrico, Virginia departed this world to be with her Lord and Saviour on April 6, 2021. She was born on April 7, 1949, in Charles City, Virginia, to the union of the late Lewis B. Dobson and Lucy B. Williams.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Parrish Hill Baptist Church, and attended Charles City Public Schools, graduating in the Ruthville High School Class of 1967. There, she was voted “Most Likely to Succeed” by her graduating class, and was a member of the National Honor Society. After graduation, she held various professional employments, at the Yorktown Naval Weapons Station, K-Mart Corporation, and the Medical College of Virginia, from which she retired in 2002, after 16 years of service.

Linda, or “Lightning”, as she was known by those closest to her, was preceded in death by her parents (above) and brothers Donald and Cyril (Bernard) Dobson. She leaves to cherish her wonderful memories; two sons, Cyril Roger Charity, Sr. of Dumfries, VA, and Carey Rodrick Charity of Chesapeake, VA, who were her absolute pride and joy; three grandchildren, or “Nana’s Babies”, as she referred to them, Cyril Jr. “Scooter”, Austin Lewis “Buddy”, and Cozét Rose Charity; sisters Claudette Woodson (William) and Iona Dobson; nephews Montrese and Marcus Dobson; nieces Torski Arnold (Ronald) and LaTorsha Davis (Wayne); a devoted cousin, Martha “Faye” Dobson, and a host of relatives and loving friends.

“Weeping may endure for a night,
but joy cometh in the morning”

– Psalm 30:5

“ Sending deepest condolences and wishes of comfort to the Charity family during this time of loss. Try to take solace in knowing that "Mama Charity" (as I referred to her as) is no longer in pain, and is now resting in paradise.

Mama Charity - Thank you for accepting me into your extended family (via my 25-year friendship w/ Cyril) back in '96. You opened your doors, and always had a warm meal prepared, and place for me to sleep whenever I visited. You will be forever loved and missed.

“ Family, we are sending our condolences to you after learning of the passing of your loved one "Linda". We can remember those times we as children had fun times together (Easter Egg Hunts, Birthdays, etc) as we grew into adults. Those are just a few memories we have and I'm sure you'll have many. Share them with each other, talk about her often. Love never dies and memories last forever.
