

Linda D. Stevenson

April 16, 1960 - June 15, 2006

LINDA D. STEVENSON was born on April 16, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland to Maurice Edward Stevenson, Sr. and the late Delores Sandra Stevenson. She was the baby girl of four daughters from this union. Linda was educated in the Baltimore City Public schools, afterwards she was blessed with two children. She was known by most of her friends and loved ones as “Linky” as she was affectionately called; always smiling and laughing. She was a home mom who loved her children. Most of all she loved to spend time with her grandson, Jaliel and was overwhelmed to be blessed with her newest arrival, granddaughter Rhianna. She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Arnold J. Gamble, Jr. and daughter Brittany A. Norris, two grandchildren Jaliel C. Gamble and Rhianna N. Bodden; her father, Maurice Stevenson; stepmother, Phyllis Stevenson; four sisters, Norrice (Stevenson) Herndon, Deborah Stevenson; one brother, Maurice E. Stevenson, Jr.; one stepsister, Tracy Byrd; two brothers-in-law, Earl Herndon and Rodney Byrd; seven nephews, five nieces, two sisters preceded in death, Robin Stevenson-Sanchez and Monique Stevenson; a host of aunts, uncles and cousins and many other relatives and friends.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to your family on the recent death of your loved one. Although the pain hurts us so deeply when we lose a loved one, Jehovah does not leave us without hope or comfort. He never wanted anyone to ever die, and he promises to end sickness and death in the very near future. 1st Cor. 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." When Jesus was on earth he demonstrated the power of his father, Jehovah God by bringing Lazarus back to life after he had been dead 4 days, and ressurecting many others including a 12-year old girl. As our now reigning king, he will bring millions back to life to live in a peaceful new world. 1st Peer 3:13, Psalm 37:29, Isaiah 25:8, and Rev 21:1,3,4. May these scriptures bring you comfort as well as a hope of being reunited with your loved one again. What a happy day that will be.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
