

Linda Elizabeth Smith

June 4, 1949 - July 26, 2003

"Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4 Linda Elizabeth Smith, eldest daughter of Eleanor E. Broadway and the late Robert M. Broadway, was born on June 4, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed this life on July 26, 2003 after a vigorous battle with cancer. Linda received her education at Eastern High School. She worked at various jobs in the fields of cash handling and accounts payable/receivable. Her most recent job with Jackson Hewitt as a tax preparer. Linda was a fun loving person who loved to cook and entertain her family and friends. She was a giving person. She often opened her doors to anyone in need of a place to stay and always put other people's needs before her own. She was a very forgiving person and her love for her children was unconditional. To know Linda is to love Linda. She was strong willed and a compassionate, devoted friend to all. Her jovial spirit will be greatly missed. She leaves to treasure her memories: three daughters, Towanda, Glenda, and Nicole; her spouse, Vernon Smith; mother, Eleanor E. Broadway; five brothers, Robert, Berle, Blaine, Blair, and Eric; three sisters, Eleanor, Barbara and Anita; an Aunt, Ruby Webb; five grandchildren, Tierra, Kendra, Bobby, Ashley, and Michael; one great-grandchild, Amir; long-time companion, Jay Brown; son-in-law, Michael Stephens; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends
