

Linda Faye DeVaughn

November 7, 1960 - October 29, 2001

Linda Faye DeVaughn a native Baltimorean, born November 7, 1960 departed this life on Monday October 29, 2001 at Sinai Hospital of Baltimore, Maryland. She is the daughter of the late James F. and Olivia V. White, and sister of the late Sheliah Anderson-White. Linda was loved, admired and adored by her family, relatives and friends. As a Senior Case Manager for I Can Incorporated she adopted the philosophy of "Striving to be independent and economically self-sufficient". Linda loved the human services field, because she said it lifted her heart and soul every time a client achieved their goals no matter how big or small. One of Linda's greatest pleasures in life was giving her talents to her family and special clients. Linda was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Walbrook Senior High in 1978. She married her school sweetheart and soul mate Joseph F. DeVaughn and from this union they had two wonderful daughters. Shavon Shontay and Shamaica Nichole. Having the full support of her family, Linda was able to pursue higher education at Sojourner-Douglas College where she earned a B.A with honors, majoring in Accounting in 1986. She also joined the Alphi Kappa Alpha. Linda later found a passion for the Human Service field and earned her Masters Degree in Education with a major in Rehabilitation Counseling from Coppin State College in 1999. Linda leaves to cherish with loving memories: her husband, Joseph; two daughters, Shavon and Shamaica; one granddaughter, Synaia, one god daughter, Arilia Wickham; one sister, Sandrah Brown, three brothers, James Reddick, Larry and Michael White, and a host of in-laws, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ *The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood. Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##Victor C.
