

Linda J. Hardy

August 20, 1944 - January 12, 2005

Linda Johnson Hardy, daughter of the late James and Sarah Ross, was born on August 20, 1944 in BelAir, Maryland. She departed this life on January 12, 2005 after a lengthy illness. Linda was a graduate of Western High School, and went on to work for the Social Security Administration from which she retired in 1999 after more than 30 years of service. She started off her day with inspiration from Joyce Meyer, and went on to her favorite daytime show "The Price is Right." We all knew not to call her during these times. She frequented Atlantic City, Delaware, and went on many boat cruises, was a collector of magnets, and everyone who knew of it added to her collection. After retiring from Social Security, she talked with her many co-workers so often, you wouldn't know she didn't have a desk there anymore. Some of her co-workers became friends, special friends, like family members. We all were drawn to her kind words in her soft-spoken voice. Linda was the mother of three sons; the youngest Damon Johnson, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn: her two sons, Cameron and Aaron Johnson (Sonya); sister, Janice Rogers (Kenneth); brother, James Ross Jr. (Frances); five grandsons, Aaron Jr., Dewone, Jamar, Eric and Devin; great-granddaughter, D'Asia; two aunts, Jossie Stewart and Pearl Ruff; an honorary aunt, Shirley; two nieces, Donna (Jackie) and Kendra; nephew Kristian; close cousins, Vance, Daisy and Wesley; a host of other relatives and very special friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends of, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To Family & Friends:Please accept my condolences for your loss. Our family receives much comfort and strength from the loving promises in the Bible. The Bible holds out the hope of being reunited with our loved ones again. At that time all of the sorrows that we now experience will be done away with- all the sickness, death, sorrow and pain. What about our loved ones now taken by death? The Bible promises a resurrection, a coming back to life. Hosea 13:14 says- "From the hand of Sheol (the grave) I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death?" (Matthew 5:5 and Psalm 37:9-11 are good to read) May these divinely inspired promises add to your strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ A year has passed and perhaps the pain has not subsided of losing Ms. Hardy. Please be assured that Almighty God has not forgotten your pain and grief. He makes a promise at Isaiah 25:8, 9 that death will be removed forever thru his Son Jesus Christ. May you find comfort in this scripture.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
