“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Our family finds comfort in the Bible's words at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.##imported-begin##sharon hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Linda Banks: I want to express my sympathy and offer some comforting words that has helped me during my time of deep sorrow. "One suffers when a loved one dies because death is a loss to a void beyond all understanding." But the Bible offers hope for our dear loved one at John 5:28,29-"the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, and John 11:25,says "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, the Bible offers us hope of being reunited with our dear loved one on a paradise earth, which is so near at hand. Psalms 37:29 says, "the righteous themselves will possess the earth." Please accept my condolence.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##
