“ I extend my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Owens. I know you must miss her an awful lot. Death is so painful, and so hard to come to grips with; knowing we can\ " see or talk to our loved one anymore. We all long for an end to sickness and death, and one day that desire will be fulfilled. Isaiah 33:24 tells us that at God\ 's appointed time, No resident will say, I am sick. Also Isaiah promises that God will swallow up death forever. One day family, no more sorrow; no more tears. I pray that you receive the comfort that you need to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief for us all. But there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
