

Linda Myra Hewson

March 21, 1959 - September 26, 2009

Linda Myra Hewson, was born March 21, 1959 in New York City to the proud parents of the late Barbara and Charles Wiggins. She went home to be with the Lord, September 26, 2009. Linda was educated at C. W. Post in Greenvale Long Island, New York. She also graduated from New York City Institute of Technical College where she majored and earned a degree in television production. She also graduated as a paralegal from North Carolina State in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She was a member of the Who's Who's in Sanford, North Carolina. As her adult life progressed, she worked as a paralegal with Michael Ian Black, a well established attorney of New York City, Linda was content with her educational status. She was baptized at Saint Johns Baptist Church, in Richmond, Virginia. Linda's character and beautiful personality was heartfelt by so many. She loved to make everyone smile by her witty style. She gained a lot of wisdom and loved to share her life stories. Linda was also a comedian she had a way of making anyone and everyone laugh. Her will was strong and her spirit will truly be missed. She will be embedded in our hearts forever. She leaves to cherish memories to her three children, Tajavette Ajay Lorne Hewson, Laurent Abney and Ebon Hewson; four grand-children, Alexis Abney, Zakyran Abney, Antonio Abney and Anaiya Lopez; two sisters, Yvette Beatrice Wiggins and Lorne Melinda Hewson; her only surviving uncle, James Hewson; two aunts, Diane Bilal and Lola Wiggins, a goddaughter, Crystal Kennedy whom she loved dearly; a host of cousins, other relatives; a devoted best friend, Fayquitha Gallant and others too numerous to mention.
