

Linda Loretta Powell

January 6, 1950 - March 23, 2013

LINDA LORETTA POWELL, daughter of the late William Henry Haynie, Sr. and Loretta Smith Haynie, was born on January 6, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland . She Departed this life on March 23, 2013 after a short illness,

Linda received her education in the Baltimore City public School System. She graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School in 1968. She began working as a secretary at the Social Security Administration shortly after her graduation. She retired in 2007 after many years of service.

She was brought up in the church and attended the new Psalmist Baptist Church as a child and attended Calvary Baptist Church as a young adult.

In 1970, Linda married Charles H. Powell, from this union two children were born, Charles and Jada.

She was an avid sports fan. She loved the Baltimore Orioles, the Baltimore Colts, and the Baltimore Ravens (which became her favorite team). Another one of Linda's favorite pastimes was watching TV-including Golden Girls, game shows, and watching the Young and The Restless with her mother-in-law, Baba. Everyone knew not to call or talk with Linda on special occasions. She was especially known for her famous fried chicken, a recipe acquired from her mother Loretta

Linda leaves to mourn: her children Powell, Sr, and Jada Powell; daughter-in-law, SeLena Powell; five grandchildren, Caresha, Quandra, Charles Jr., Chaez and DeJuane; two great-grandchildren Jamari and Skylar; three brothers, William Jr., Gerald and Paul Haynie; two sisters, Rosalind Bailey and Carolyn Haynie; a special friend and mother-in-law, Rose Powell; a devoted nephew, Gregory with whom she resided; two sister-in-law; one brother-in-law; and a host of other nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Roberta Wilson.

“ *Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.*

*Sincerely,

“ To the Family and Friends of Linda Loretta Powell,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Miss Linda! I have fond memories of when she would pile all us neighborhood kids into her big brown car and take us to see the Orioles at Memorial Stadium. She will truly be missed! She was one of my neighborhood Mom's growing up, part of my village.. Words are not enough to express my love for her! My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the Powell family!

“ I am so sorry for your loss of Linda. Please accept my condolences. When our greatest enemy 'death' strikes, it can bring a lot of pain and sorrow.

However, I find comfort from Psalm 55:22 which says God will comfort/sustain us if we throw our burdens on him.

We also have the hope of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). We can look forward to seeing our dead loves ones again (including Linda).

I hope these scriptural thoughts bring you some comfort.
