

Linda Stanley

September 3, 1965 - October 10, 2004

God simply whispered her name and like a dove taking flight Linda Ray Stanley ascended into His opened arms. Linda departed this life on Sunday, October 10, 2004 at 6:10 a.m. after succumbing to a short term illness. Born on September 3, 1965 to Christine Stanley and the late Leroy Stanley Sr., Linda came into this world ready to overcome any obstacles and achieve any goals she wanted or came her way. She was an easygoing person who made others feel comfortable in her presence, especially on Friday nights when she stepped out to the club (Oh boy, was she a party animal). As she would say, "I'm doing it up, girl." Linda was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Lake Clifton High School in 1984. While in school she had so much energy, she decided to play softball, basketball, volleyball, and run cross country (which she did very well). She was employed at L.F.C. for several years before she decided to move on to The Arc of Baltimore. Linda leaves to cherish her memory: a treasured son, Robert L. Miller II; her precious daughter, Tiamiara Lynn Thompson; stepdaughter, Lashelle Thompson; her devoted mother, Christine Brice; stepfather, Leroy Brice; four brothers, Edward Leroy Stanley, Christopher, Leroy Jr., Sean; three sisters, Jocelyn, Dorothy and Antionette; grandfather, Sterling Stanley; twelve nieces, four nephews (nephew, Robert A. Joseph preceded her in death); two great-nieces, a stepdaughter, a goddaughter; a very special friend, Anthony Walker; a host of aunts, uncles, other family and friends.
