

Linda Diane Valentine

October 28, 1947 - January 26, 2018

Deaconess Linda Valentine was born on October 28, 1947 in Englewood, New Jersey to the late Clara (Watson) Norrell. She received her heavenly wings the evening of January 26, 2018, surrounded by her loved ones. Linda was raised by her grandparents Weldon and Janie Watson, along with her four uncles: Weldon Jr., Robert, Irvin, Lawrence, and one aunt, Gertrude. She had one brother, Wallace Norrell. They all preceded her in death.

Linda received her education in the Englewood School System and later attended trade school. She accepted Christ at an early age at First Baptist in Englewood, New Jersey. There she served in many organizations and sang in the choir.

Linda and her husband, Leonard (Jack) moved to Mechanicsville, Virginia on May 30, 1988 and joined First Shiloh Baptist Church in November of 1989. She was an active member of the Deaconess Ministry and a member of AARP Chapter 5407 Mechanicsville, Virginia. She previously, along with her husband, chaired the First Shiloh Married Couples Ministry and was a member of the Trustee Ministry. Linda worked for the United States Postal Service for thirty-seven years, retiring because of illness in 2004.

Linda loved to camp and travel by motor home with Jack and their little dogs; Dana, Rasberry, and Grenchie. She was an avid bowler and loved sports.

Linda leaves to mourn her husband of 38 years (together 45 years), Deacon Leonard "Jack": Valentine, Jr. and their faithful companion, Grenchie; cousin, Marcia Carr, who was like a sister; godson, Sean Norrell; god-daughter, Jocelyn Harvey; brothers-in-law, John Valentine (Pam) and Norman Tate; sister-in-law, Diane Valentine; one nephew, and a host of cousins, church families and friends.
