“ Dear Family and friends of Mrs. White; I would like to express my deepest sympathy for your great loss. No doubt the 'sting of death' brings about a pain unlike any other we pain we experience in life. Death has no regards as to who, when, where or how to strike. We are all vulnerable and therefore can relate to others when a loss has occurred. I would like to impart some comfort from God's Word, the bible. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..... At John 5:28, 28 Jesus tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..... How comforting the hope of seeing our loved ones again is. One day soon our tears of pain will be turned into tears of joy by means of a resurrection. It is my hope that time and memories help you to heal. Take care.
