“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Mr. Newton, I just can not believe you're gone. Every morning as I leave for work, I can still see you sitting on the front porch and telling me to have a good day. I'm going to miss all the small things you did for me like keeping an eye on my house whenever I left town, collecting my mail and packages. I know you're in a much better place and do me one more favor, say hello to my mom and dad. Until I see you again, rest in peace.##imported-begin##Monique Perkins##imported-end##

“ During this time of sorrow, may it help to know that the hearts of others are deeply touched by your loss. Mr. Newton, my mom and I had planned to visit you on Saturday. We even bought you some get well cards. When I arrived home, she told me the bad news. I don't understand why this happened. Maybe it's not for me to understand. But I want you to know I really miss you and I'm going to continue to do good in school and make you and my grandparents proud. "I'll see you when I get there."

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Lindsey Lee Newton. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin##S.
