

Linnie Fred Smith

December 8, 1964 - October 11, 2010

LINNIE-FRED EVANS was born on December 8, 1964, to the late Fred and Linnie Evans. Linnie departed this life on October 11, 2010, after a lengthy illness.

Linnie received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She later returned to school and received her high school diploma from changing Directions on April 22, 1993. Linnie held numerous jobs at Nursing Homes in their Dietary and Laundry Department. But her passion was to work with patients and so before her illness she returned to school. She was attending TESST College for her Certified Medical Assistant (CMA) Certification. She was a member of First Faith Baptist Church.

Linnie met Malcon Smith in 1982 when her son was six months old. They remained together for fourteen years. They then married and the union lasted for another fourteen years. They were blessed to be together for twenty-eight years and raised seven children. Malcon was a loving and faithful husband and stood by his wife side until the Lord called her home. Linnie was very loving, out spoken, caring and giving person. She loved everyone she came to know and would helped anyone she could. Linnie loved to sing and dance. She was truly a blessing and a child of God and would open her home to anyone.

Preceding her in death was her second mother, Margaret V. Jones; brothers, Henry Singletary, Earl Blanding, Jr. And Fred Evans, son Adrian Smith and mother-in-law, Carrie Smith. All whom she loved dearly.

Linnie leaves to mourn: her husband, Malcon Smith; Children, Quentin Gee, Robert Brown, Jr., Trenell Smith, Shantel Smith and Gene Smith; grandchildren, Tanasya and Tajai Gee and Lacel Shannon, Jr., sister, Veronica Stokes, Denise Free, Cynthia (Kirk) Fisher and Barbara Heath; sister-in-law, Gwendolyn, Sondra and Angela Smith and VelandacClay; brother-in-law, Dennis Sr. and Donnell Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ I will always remember the true friendship that we shared. The Lord truly blessed us all with a small young lady with the heart the size of the world. The talks and memories are with me forever. She never let me forget how special a person I was and never let me beat myself up over anything. It is my honor to have had two best friends in the same home her and Ghosie. Love you forever.
