“ In loving memory of one of the most loving, protective and funny brother in law. We are going to truly miss your laughter and humorous stories. To truly know you was to truly love you. You lived life, your way. You fought a good fight that only a few witnessed. I saw a strong man, who endured 2-3 days on a bus, SICK, just to get home to your loved ones. You were half way across the country and though you were ill, we knew where your heart was. A heart of gold has stopped beating....Rest now, for God truly has a warrior in his house.

*Linwood is greatly missed by our family. He always made us laugh and treated us so kindly. The world is a little less vibrant now. With love,
Tasha, Raymond and Ava*
