

Linwood Daye

August 17, 1935 - December 10, 2011

Linwood Daye, the son of the late Maynard and Ethel Daye was born on August 17, 1935 in Roxboro, North Carolina. After a lengthy illness, God called him home on December 10, 2011.

As a young boy, Linwood worked along side his brothers and sisters attending and harvesting crops of tobacco and vegetables. All hands were needed to help support the family.

Linwood moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1959. He later married his soul mate and the love of his life, the late Thelma Daye. From their union three children were born, Rosalyn, Linwood and Michael.

Linwood was employed by the University of Maryland Hospital. He originally held the position of a maintenance worker. Later, he attended the State of Maryland Police Academy. After completion, Linwood became a Police Officer for the University of Maryland. In 1989, Linwood retired after twenty-five years of service.

Linwood had a passion for fast cars and still owns a 1969 Grand Prix which he had custom build. Linwood was also an avid fisherman, gardener and carpenter. Making Sweet Potato Jacks and homemade rolls was one of his specialties and will be missed by many.

Linwood was always willing to give a helping hand to anyone. He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn; daughter, Rosalyn; sons, Linwood and Michael; sisters, Peggy Rone, Katie Daye and Janie Little; brother, Kenneth Daye; two daughters-in-law, Vertice Daye and Linda Scott; two sons-in-law, Charles Venter and Byron Joynes; grandchildren, Bria, Colby, Danyel, Michelle, Derrick, Denise, Donna, Heather and Byron; stepchildren, Emmett, James, Patricia and Fontaine; sisters-in-law, Jane, Ruby, Laura, Ernestine and Louise; brother-in-law, Milton; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Special Thanks to Peggy Rone for the rearing of Linwood after the death of his mother, Ethel Daye. Peggy became the matriarch of the family and made Linwood the man he is today.

“ *Dear Family,
I'm so sorry to hear Uncle Linwood Died. He was close to Mama Lillie and he will be missed. To this day we still can't believe she has been gone over a year. And to look back at our life then and see how far we have come. We can only say "God Is Good, & all of our strength and courage came from him. I know they are some where together right now talking junk about us down there. So don't fret they are just fine. And God will heal your heart, trust me, we know all to well that he can heal your heart. Just wait on him.
Sincerely Lillie Corbett's Family (written by Lynete')*

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
